Discover the Underground Television Revolution

Prepare to embark on a mind-bending journey through the labyrinth of underground television with Dumpster Television Magazine. As you turn the pages of this quarterly publication, you'll find yourself immersed in a world of bizarre, obscure, and downright mind-boggling shows. From the depths of late-night public access to the fringes of the internet, Dumpster Television brings you the hidden gems of the small screen.

Unearth the Strange and the Wonderful

Dumpster Television Magazine is a celebration of the strange and the wonderful. Its writers and curators have scoured the globe to uncover the most eccentric, bizarre, and downright captivating shows that you never knew existed. From surrealist animated shorts to experimental documentaries and bizarre reality TV, there's something for every adventurous viewer.

Meet the Creators Behind the Madness

In addition to showcasing underground television shows, Dumpster Television Magazine also profiles the visionary creators behind these strange and captivating programs. You'll learn about the inspirations, the motivations, and the quirky personalities that drive these artists to push the boundaries of television.

Become a Part of the Underground Scene

Dumpster Television Magazine is not just a magazine; it's a community. Subscribers gain access to exclusive online forums, where they can connect with other fans of underground television, share their discoveries, and even pitch their own show ideas. Whether you're a seasoned veteran of the underground or a curious newcomer, Dumpster Television Magazine will welcome you with open arms.

What's Inside Every Issue

Each issue of Dumpster Television Magazine is packed with a diverse array of content, including:
