

Mutual Fund Litigation And Insurance Practice Guide: The Essential Expert Guide

The mutual fund industry is a vast and complex one, with trillions of dollars in assets under management. With such a large amount of money at stake, it is no surprise that there is a significant amount of litigation involving mutual funds. This litigation can involve a variety of issues, including breach of fiduciary duty, misrepresentation, and fraud.

In addition to litigation, mutual funds are also subject to a variety of insurance regulations. These regulations are designed to protect investors from losses caused by the failure of a mutual fund or its investment adviser.
